

Harrison Ludington Residence

343 Glenview Avenue

After serving as mayor of Milwaukee and governor of Wisconsin, Harrison Ludington built a “gentleman’s farmhouse” on the 100-acre stock farm he purchased in 1870. Ludington built the house in 1881 for his son, Frederick, to encourage him to pursue farming, rather than politics, as a career.

Historic Photo

2005

City of Wauwatosa Designated Historic Place